3. UNIMPROVED ROAD.

☐ YES ☒ NO

If checked Yes by Seller, Seller acknowledges that the road abutting the property is unfinished or does not meet County roadway Standards and that there is a recorded covenant deferring future cost for street improvements which has been deferred by the Prince George's County Department of Public Works and Transportation, for which a Buyer may be liable.

4. LAND USE, ZONING, ROADS, HIGHWAYS, PARK, TRANSPORTATION, ETC. Seller certifies that Seller has no knowledge of any published preliminary or adopted land use plan (or adopted Zoning Map Amendment) which may result in condemnation or taking of any part of Seller's property. Buyer acknowledges that Buyer is aware that information relative to (1) government plans for land use, roads, highways, parks, transportation, etc., and (2) rezoning is available for inspection at the County Administration Building, Upper Marlboro, Maryland, at www.PGAtlas.com, and http://www.pgplanning.org/Planning_Home. Buyer(s) further acknowledges, and is strongly encouraged to take advantage of his/her opportunity to examine the above referenced information and any other information pertaining to the Property that is relevant to Buyer prior to signing or entering into the contract of sale.

5. PROXIMITY OF RECREATION FACILITIES. Buyer(s) acknowledge that if property is adjacent to an existing or planned golf course or other recreational facility the property may be subject to minor damage as a result of the operation of such facility and that insurance against such damage is the responsibility of the Buyer.

6. MILITARY INSTALLATIONS/MILITARY OPERATIONS: This Section does not apply in Allegany, Carroll, Frederick, Garrett, Howard, Montgomery, and Washington Counties. Buyer is advised that the Property may be located near a military installation that conducts flight operations, munitions testing, or military operations that may result in high noise levels. The Property may be located near Joint Base Andrews Naval Air Facility Washington ("Andrews Air Force Base") or locations where military flight operations occur. Properties located near military aircraft operation centers may be impacted by varying degrees of noise, potential aircraft accidents consistent with other airfields or military operations. Andrews Air Force Base may conduct flight operations at any time, seven days per week, twenty-four hours a day. The effects of military operations may extend beyond the boundaries of the military facilities. Buyer is advised that modifications and/or renovation to existing structures within designated areas may be subject to design standards which may include noise mitigation and height limits. Buyer is encouraged to contact Andrews Air Force Base (Public Affairs Office) or seek additional information from the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission (MNCPPC) regarding the impact of military operations in the area considered for purchase. Additional information may be available at www.PGAtlas.com, and from the Air Installation Compatible Use Zone (AICUZ) Study prepared by Andrews Air Force Base which is available at <http://www.andrews.af.mil>.

7. UNCOMPLETED COMMUNITY AMENITIES: Maryland Law, Real Property Article Sec. 10-710, requires that a contract of sale for residential real property located in a community in Prince George's County, MD in which a home builder has agreed to provide a community amenity including a country club, golf course, health club, park, swimming pool, tennis court, or walking trail, to specifically identify the amenity to be provided and the date of completion.

Is the Property located in a community where a home builder has agreed to provide a community amenity as described above which has not been completed? YES [] NO [☒] (If yes, PGCAR Form #1339 MUST be attached to contract)

8. UTILITY USAGE:

Prince George's County Code, Section 13.1107 requires certain sellers of single family residential real property, defined as residential real property improved by four or fewer single family units, to provide, on written request, copies of electric, gas, and home heating oil bills, or a document detailing the monthly electric, gas, and home heating oil usage of the residential property, for the 12-month period before the property was first marketed for sale. If the seller did not occupy the single-family home for the entire prior 12 months, the seller must provide the buyer, on written request, with the required information for that part of the prior 12 months, if any, that the seller occupied the single-family home.

The information required shall be provided if the request is made by a prospective buyer who has signed and submitted an offer to purchase and the seller has access to the information. (See PGCAR Form #1336)

9. CARBON MONOXIDE DETECTORS:

Prince George's County Code, Section 11.295 requires the seller or transferor to install carbon monoxide detectors before or at the time of the transfer of ownership of the following residences:

One-and two-family residential dwellings. The requirements for installation and maintenance of a carbon monoxide detector in an existing one-and two-family residential dwelling shall be at least one (1) battery-powered carbon monoxide detector installed on each level of the dwelling in close proximity to sleeping quarters in a residence with a gas heating system, fuel burning appliances, and/or an attached garage. Each carbon monoxide detector must comply with all applicable Federal and State regulations and must bear the label of a nationally recognized standard testing laboratory. Each detector must be an Underwriters Laboratory (U.L.) 2034 listed product or its equivalent. The subsequent owner/occupant of each dwelling unit shall be responsible for inspecting and maintaining the carbon monoxide detectors in accordance with the manufacturer's specifications.

10. PROXIMITY TO AGRICULTURAL AND/OR FORESTRY OPERATIONS.

Prince George's County Law, Sec. 30-103.03 requires sellers of real property in the R-O-S, O-S, R-A, R.E., R.R. Zones to provide a statement advising the buyer as follows: Buyer(s) acknowledge that the property offered for sale is in the vicinity of property that is, or may be used, for agricultural or forestry operations. As such, the Property may be subject to activity including, but not limited to, noise, odor, fumes, insects, dust, chemical application and the operation of machinery at various times. Prince George's County has adopted a right to farm ordinance stipulating that inconveniences or discomforts associated with the agricultural/forestry operation shall not be considered an interference with reasonable use and enjoyment of other properties in the vicinity, if such operations are conducted in accordance with generally accepted agricultural and forestry management practices, as referenced in Prince George's County Code, Section 30-102. The County has established an Agricultural Reconciliation Committee to assist in the resolution of disputes that may arise with regard to agricultural or forestry operations when such operations are not conducted in accordance with generally accepted agricultural or forestry management practices. For further information refer to Prince George's County Code, Subtitle 30, Division 1, and/or contact the Director, Department of Environmental Resources.

11. DEFERRED WATER AND SEWER ASSESSMENTS/FRONT FOOT BENEFIT CHARGES. Certain communities are subject to charges or assessments intended to defray the cost of installing water and sewer facilities. These charges are liens against the Property that usually run with the Property for between 20 and 40 years, but are often not paid in the property tax bill. These charges or assessments are separate from bills for water and sewer usage and from homeowners' association dues. If not included in the property tax bill, they are often paid annually and are not usually included within an escrow payment paid to a mortgage holder. Pursuant to the Maryland Annotated Code, Real Property Article, Sec. 14-117 and Prince George's County Code, Sec 2.162.01, any contract for the sale of real property located in Prince George's County for which there are deferred water and sewer assessments recorded by covenant or declaration for which the purchaser is liable shall contain disclosure, as detailed below, by seller (owner) prior to the time the contract is signed. Failure to comply shall enable an aggrieved party to the sales contract to rescind the contract at any time prior to settlement and any other right or cause of action available to a party to the sales contract shall remain.

(Seller to check appropriate line below):

- ☒ There are currently NO deferred water and sewer assessments or front foot benefit charges assessed against the Property.

NOTICE TO BUYER AND SELLER OF BUYER'S RIGHTS AND SELLER'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER MARYLAND'S SINGLE FAMILY RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY CONDITION DISCLOSURE LAW

ADDENDUM # _____ dated _____ to the Contract of Sale between Buyer _____
and Seller Arturo Alfaro _____ for the Property known as 7711 Normandy Rd, Hyattsville, MD 20785-2739

NOTE: This notice does not apply to: (1) the initial sale of single family residential property which has never been occupied, or for which a certificate of occupancy has been issued within one year prior to the date of the Contract; (2) a transfer that is exempt from the transfer tax under Subsection 13-207 of the Tax-Property Article, except land installments contracts of sale under Subsection 13-207(a)(11) of the Tax-Property Article and options to purchase real property under Subsection 13-207(a)(12) of the Tax-Property Article; (3) a sale by a lender or an affiliate or subsidiary of a lender that acquired the real property by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure; (4) a sheriff's sale, tax sale, or sale by foreclosure, partition or by court appointed trustee; (5) a transfer by a fiduciary in the course of the administration of a decedent's estate, guardianship, conservatorship, or trust; (6) a transfer of single family residential real property to be converted by the buyer into a use other than residential use or to be demolished; or (7) a sale of unimproved real property.

Section 10-702 of the Real Property Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland ("Section 10-702") requires that a seller of a single family residential property ("the property") deliver to each buyer, on or before entering into a contract of sale, on a form published and prepared by the Maryland Real Estate Commission, EITHER:

- (A) A written property condition disclosure statement listing all defects including latent defects, or information of which the seller has actual knowledge in relation to the following:
- (i) Water and sewer systems, including the source of household water, water treatment systems, and sprinkler systems;
 - (ii) Insulation;
 - (iii) Structural systems, including the roof, walls, floors, foundation and any basement;
 - (iv) Plumbing, electrical, heating, and air conditioning systems;
 - (v) Infestation of wood-destroying insects;
 - (vi) Land use matters;
 - (vii) Hazardous or regulated materials, including asbestos, lead-based paint, radon, underground storage tanks, and licensed landfills;
 - (viii) Any other material defects, including latent defects, of which the seller has actual knowledge;
 - (ix) Whether the smoke alarms:
 - 1. will provide an alarm in the event of a power outage;
 - 2. are over 10 years old; and
 - 3. if battery operated, are sealed, tamper resistant units incorporating a silence/hush button and use long-life batteries as required in all Maryland homes by 2018; and
 - (x) If the property relies on the combustion of a fossil fuel for heat, ventilation, hot water, or clothes dryer operation, whether a carbon monoxide alarm is installed on the property.

"Latent defects" under Section 10-702 means material defects in real property or an improvement to real property that:

- (i) A buyer would not reasonably be expected to ascertain or observe by a careful visual inspection, and
- (ii) Would pose a threat to the health or safety of the buyer or an occupant of the property, including a tenant or invitee of the buyer;

OR

- (B) A written disclaimer statement providing that:
- (i) Except for latent defects of which the seller has actual knowledge, the seller makes no representations or warranties as to the condition of the real property or any improvements on the real property; and
 - (ii) The buyer will be receiving the real property "as is," with all defects, including latent defects, that may exist, except as otherwise provided in the contract of sale of the property.

This recommended form is the property of The Greater Capital Area Association of REALTORS®, Inc. and is for use by members only.

Previous editions of those forms should be destroyed.

At the time the disclosure or disclaimer statement is delivered to you ("the buyer"), you are required to date and sign a written acknowledgement of receipt on the disclosure or disclaimer statement which shall be included in or attached to the contract of sale.

Section 10-702 further provides that a buyer who receives the disclosure or disclaimer statement on or before entering into a contract of sale does not have the right to rescind the contract based upon the information contained in the disclosure or disclaimer statement.

You are hereby notified that, in certain circumstances, you have the right to rescind your contract with the seller if the seller fails to deliver to you the written property condition disclosure or disclaimer statement. Section 10-702 provides that a buyer who does not receive the disclosure or disclaimer statement on or before entering into the contract has the unconditional right, upon written notice to the seller or seller's agent:

- (i) To rescind the contract at any time before the receipt of the disclosure or disclaimer statement or within 5 days following receipt of the disclosure or disclaimer statement; and
- (ii) To the immediate return of any deposits made on account of the contract.

Your right to rescind the contract under Section 10-702 terminates if not exercised before making a written application to a lender for a mortgage loan, if the lender discloses in writing at or before the time application is made that the right to rescind terminates on submission of the application or within 5 days following receipt of a written disclosure from a lender who has received your application for a mortgage loan, if the lender's disclosure states that your right to rescind terminates at the end of that 5 day period.

Your rights as a buyer under Section 10-702 may not be waived in the contract and any attempted waiver is void.

Your rights as the buyer to terminate the contract under Section 10-702 are waived conclusively if not exercised before:

- (i) Closing or occupancy by you, whichever occurs first, in the event of a sale; or
- (ii) Occupancy, in the event of a lease with option to purchase.

The information contained in the property condition disclosure statement is the representation of the seller and not the representation of the real estate broker or sales person, if any. A disclosure by the seller is not a substitute for an inspection by an independent professional home inspection company. You should consider obtaining such an inspection. The information contained in a disclosure statement by the seller is not a warranty by the seller as to the condition of the property of which condition the seller has no actual knowledge or other condition, including latent defects, of which the seller has no actual knowledge. The seller is not required to undertake or provide an independent investigation or inspection of the property in order to make the disclosures required by Section 10-702. The seller is not liable for an error, inaccuracy or omission in the disclosure statement if the error, inaccuracy or omission was based upon information that was not within the actual knowledge of the seller or was provided to the seller by a third party as specified in Section 10-702(i) or (j).

You may wish to obtain professional advice about the property or obtain an inspection of the property.

The undersigned buyer(s) and seller(s) acknowledge receipt of this notice on the date indicated below and acknowledge that the real estate licensee(s) named below have informed the buyer(s) and the seller(s) of the buyer(s)' rights and the seller(s)' obligations under Section 10-702.

MARYLAND RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLOSURE AND DISCLAIMER STATEMENT

Property Address: 7711 Normandy Rd, Hyattsville, MD 20785-2739

Legal Description: _____

NOTICE TO SELLER AND PURCHASER

Section 10-702 of the Real Property Article, Annotated Code of Maryland, requires the seller of certain residential real property to furnish to the purchaser either (a) a RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLAIMER STATEMENT stating that the seller is selling the property "as is" and makes no representations or warranties as to the condition of the property or any improvements on the real property, except as otherwise provided in the contract of sale, or in a listing of latent defects; or (b) a RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT disclosing defects or other information about the condition of the real property actually known by the seller. Certain transfers of residential property are excluded from this requirement (see the exemptions listed below).

10-702. EXEMPTIONS. The following are specifically excluded from the provisions of §10-702:

1. The initial sale of single family residential real property:
 - A. that has never been occupied; or
 - B. for which a certificate of occupancy has been issued within 1 year before the seller and buyer enter into a contract of sale;
2. A transfer that is exempt from the transfer tax under §13-207 of the Tax-Property Article, except land installment contracts of sales under §13-207(a) (11) of the Tax-Property Article and options to purchase real property under §13-207(a)(12) of the Tax-Property Article;
3. A sale by a lender or an affiliate or subsidiary of a lender that acquired the real property by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure;
4. A sheriff's sale, tax sale, or sale by foreclosure, partition, or by court appointed trustee;
5. A transfer by a fiduciary in the course of the administration of a decedent's estate, guardianship, conservatorship, or trust;
6. A transfer of single family residential real property to be converted by the buyer into use other than residential use or to be demolished; or
7. A sale of unimproved real property.

Section 10-702 also requires the owner to disclose information about latent defects in the property that the seller has actual knowledge of. The seller must provide this information even if selling the property "as is." "Latent defects" are defined as: Material defects in real property or an improvement to real property that:

- (1) A purchaser would not reasonably be expected to ascertain or observe by a careful visual inspection of the real property; and
- (2) Would pose a direct threat to the health or safety of:
 - (i) the purchaser; or
 - (ii) an occupant of the real property, including a tenant or invitee of the purchaser.

MARYLAND RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

NOTICE TO SELLERS: Complete and sign this statement only if you elect to disclose defects, including latent defects, or other information about the condition of the property actually known by you; otherwise, sign the Residential Property Disclaimer Statement. You may wish to obtain professional advice or inspections of the property; however, you are not required to undertake or provide any independent investigation or inspection of the property in order to make the disclosure set forth below. The disclosure is based on your personal knowledge of the condition of the property at the time of the signing of this statement.

NOTICE TO PURCHASERS: The information provided is the representation of the Sellers and is based upon the actual knowledge of Sellers as of the date noted. Disclosure by the Sellers is not a substitute for an inspection by an independent home inspection company, and you may wish to obtain such an inspection. The information contained in this statement is not a warranty by the Sellers as to the condition of the property of which the Sellers have no knowledge or other conditions of which the Sellers have no actual knowledge.

MARYLAND RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLAIMER STATEMENT

NOTICE TO SELLER(S): Sign this statement only if you elect to sell the property without representations and warranties as to its condition, except as otherwise provided in the contract of sale and in the listing of latent defects set forth below; otherwise, complete and sign the RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT.

Except for the latent defects listed below, the undersigned seller(s) of the real property make no representations or warranties as to the condition of the real property or any improvements thereon, and the purchaser will be receiving the real property "as is" with all defects, including latent defects, which may exist, except as otherwise provided in the real estate contract of sale. The seller(s) acknowledge having carefully examined this statement and further acknowledge that they have been informed of their rights and obligations under §10-702 of the Maryland Real Property Article.

Section 10-702 also requires the seller to disclose information about latent defects in the property that the seller has actual knowledge of. The seller must provide this information even if selling the property "as is." "Latent defects" are defined as: Material defects in real property or an improvement to real property that:

- (1) A purchaser would not reasonably be expected to ascertain or observe by a careful visual inspection of the real property; and
- (2) Would pose a direct threat to the health or safety of:
 - (i) the purchaser; or
 - (ii) an occupant of the real property, including a tenant or invitee of the purchaser.

Does the seller(s) have actual knowledge of any latent defects? ☐ Yes ☐ No If yes, specify:
