experience the power of the network

The Premier Marketing Group is an experienced group of Realty Executives agents who work together to expand marketing and networking reach. We call it the 'Power of the Network.'

This group pushes marketing and media boundaries to provide powerful exposure for your home beyond what is expected from a typical agent.

As Realty Executives agents, PMG members already possess the deep knowledge, entrepreneurial talent, marketing experience, integrity and professionalism that is needed when buying or selling your home. Our network of agents contributes to the advertisement, promotion and marketing of your home. Through open houses, buyer leads, networking channels and events which garner the highest exposure possible to achieve the highest price possible.

The Premier Marketing Group delivers on what matters most:
Members of industry, community and charity boards and organizations
Extensive relationships with trusted vendors and workmen
Collaborative approach to advertising and marketing

Consistent results, high standards and the willingness to utilize every marketing source possible have earned the Realty Executives Premier Marketing Group the role of trusted advisor for decades.
